WP(C) 275/2005
BEFORE
THE HON’BLE MR. JUSTICE D.BISWAS, CHIEF JUSTICE(ACTING)
THE HON’BLE MR. JUSTICE HRISKHIKESH ROY

Heard Mr S.K. Medhi, learned counsel for the petitioner; Mr. DC Chakraborty, learned Central Govt. Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent Nos. 1 to 4 and Mr BJ Talukdar, learned State counsel.

Petitioner’s grievance as unfurled in the writ petition is that he was picked up on 6.1.2007 by some Army personnel from his residence and taken to the Army camp where he was interrogated and harassed during the whole day and was let off only in the late evening. It is further alleged that the Army personnel also tried to force the petitioner to confess his link with some underground groups. Apprehending such further action by the Army authority, the petitioner has filed this petition seeking appropriate direction for protection of his life and property.

Taking into consideration the grievance raised, this petition is disposed of with direction to the respondent authorities, particularly respondent Nos. 2,3 and 4 not to take any action against the writ petitioner without authority of law. In this connection, the attention of the respondent authority is also drawn to the principles involved in the judgment of the Apex Court in Naga People’s Movement of Human Rights vs- Union of India, (1998) 2 SCC 109.
